Raymond Gillikin

Mr. Gillikin,

I have enjoy being a student under you.
I think I have learn a lot from you.

David Stephenson

Mr. Gillikin,

I can truly say it has been a pleasure having you as a teacher this year. I will never forget all the extra help you have given me and words can never express how much I appreciate it. I'm sure you will receive great blessings for being such a fine person. May God's richest blessings always be with you and Pat throughout life in whatever you do.

Best Of Luck Always,
Catricia Moore

Mr. Gillikin,

In just a few words, I couldn't express my gradetude to you", a wonderful teacher, it would take more than just words to express my "student" teacher" feelings, but to make a long story short, your "great" -- excuse me, it suppose to have been a capital G. I've had a blast in G. B. this year. — even though we have had many serious moments this year from your haly "moody moods." I know life hold many riches for you and your wife, I wish you the best MARRIAGE HAS TO OFFER

-JERRY

Best of Luck always

Mr. Gillikin

I have thoroughly enjoyed having you as a teacher for the past two years. Your teaching did not only "educate" us, but it livened up some "miserable" hours. If I was mean in your classes, it didn't come out of meanness. My warmest wishes to a very nice teacher and person and may the best of life has to offer be at your reach.

Foreword

In this, the 16th edition of the HOURGLASS, we have tried to capture and preserve the many cherished moments we have shared on and around the Erwin School campus. It is with a feeling of sadness that we leave these portals, but we face the long-awaited future with much anticipation. It is with this thought that we present this--the 1964 HOURGLASS.

Mr. Gillikin

I have truly enjoyed the two courses I have taken under your guidance. It is a joy to be in a class with such a fine atmosphere. You are a great individual and should be admired for the great quality you display. May [illegible] richest blessings rest upon you and yours.

To You, The Seniors of 1964

You are now about to reach manhood and womanhood. Many of you do not know what you will become, nor do you realize your great possibilities and potentialities. You are the raw material from which good citizens are made. It is you who hold the keys to tomorrow and, in your future, the hope of America and the world.

Teaching you has been a continuous process, beginning in early childhood. We have tried to teach you to be proud and self-reliant, to work independently, to take pride in personal accomplishments, and to understand the relative value of spiritual and material things.

I sincerely hope that you will always bear in mind your responsibility to society, and that in your every action you will conduct yourself in a manner reflecting credit on that society. You will really begin to live when you first try to overcome your weaknesses; you will cease to live the moment you lose the burning desire for self-improvement.

Class History

In the fall of 1960, a group of excited, confused, and a bit frightened freshmen entered the doors of Erwin High School. Eager to make a good impression on our new teachers and fellow students, we proceeded to make a place for ourselves in our new home as high school students by participating in the various school clubs.

As sophomores, we began the school year with more self-confidence than before. We chose as our class officers, Lee McLean, President; Rudy Stephenson, Vice-President; Sunny Horne, Secretary and Treasurer; and Ronald Patterson, Sergeant-at-Arms. Twenty-four of our class members were tapped into the Beta Club. Again our class was well-represented in the various clubs.

Our Junior year was really one to be remembered. At last, we were real "upper-classmen." We elected Bill Horne and Susan Parker as co-editors of the HI-LITE. Helping us to publish the paper were our devoted sponsors, Mrs. Sarah Hudson, Mrs. Dwight Mattox, and Miss Ida Sue Neighbors. After Christmas, we presented the Junior play, "BOLTS AND NUTS", a comedy which was directed by Mr. Joe Woodworth. We chose "Moonlight and Roses" as the theme for the Junior-Senior Prom. The magic moment began at eight o'clock on the night of May 11. For four hours, the school gymnasium was transformed into a fairyland. As the clock struck twelve, everyone left, carrying with them memories which would be cherished forever. The class officers for the year were President, Lee McLean; Vice-President, Ray Baker; Secretary, Sylvia Beasley; and Treasurer, Danny Tyndall.

At last we had reached a goal long awaited for. We were finally the all-important seniors. Realizing that this was our final year at Erwin High School, we began to work hard to make the best of it. The class officers for the year were Ray Baker, President; Rudy Stephenson, Vice-President; Frankie Avery, Secretary; Anne Turner, Treasurer; and Charles Barbour, Sergeant-at-Arms. We chose Susie Morgan and Carolyn Johnson as co-editors of the HOURGLASS. Danny Tyndall was elected as President of the Student Council, Yvonne Wilson was chosen to be the recipient of the D. A. R. Citizenship Award, and Eddie Lee and David Raynor were nominated as candidates for Morehead Scholarships. There were many other events leading to graduation exercises, but all good things must come to an end as have our beloved years at E. H. S. We shall never forget those years, and the memories that we have will never fade from our minds.

Class Prophecy

Time: June 1, 1974

Occasion: Reunion of two old classmates.

Place: The mansion of Judy Hall in Erwinly Hills, formerly Erwin.

Judy: Theresa, would you like to go on the terrace and enjoy your lemonade out there?

Theresa: Why yes, I would, thank you.

Judy: Really, I did not know it was so hot out here!

Theresa: It is rather warm. It reminds me of our graduation about this time ten years ago. Those certainly were the good old days. I wonder what all our classmates are doing now.

Judy: So do I. I know! Let us go out to the garage and tinker with "Telestar" and see if we can tune any of them in.

Place: The garage of Judy's mansion.

Theresa: Keep trying, maybe we will tune someone in.

Judy: It doesn't look like I can get anyone. Wait a minute! Didn't that look like Miguel Arisa, Ray Baker, Roy Avery, and Joey Giles in the United Nations Assembly. They must be debating the cause for people's rights. We have tuned in Rebecca Whittington's news cast, let us listen to what she is saying.

"President Danny Tyndall and Vice-President Lynn Tyndall have been conferring with the Speaker of the House, Gail Wood, concerning family reunions in the White House."

Theresa: Let us see who else we can tune in. Here is Wade Turner's news cast.

"Teachers Ann Ennis, Linda Smith, Yvonne Wilson, and Becky Bennett are fighting for universal consolidation. Ronnie Miriello, as usual, is petitioning against this."

Judy: That is similar to the Dunn-Erwin consolidation ten years ago. Here's a sports review. Let's listen.

"Rudy Stephenson and Lee McLean are opposing coaches today in the gridiron classic of the year. Elsewhere, race drivers, Ronnie Harrelson, Nicky Lovick, and Frances Tew with their pit bosses Ricky Norris, Pat Moore, and Grace Earnshaw have entered the International Grand Prix. Gloria Deck and her race horses won top money today in the Belmont Stakes. Finally, top olympic skater, Linda Vann, won a gold medal in the Olympic Games today."

Theresa: Oh, dear, Telestar just blew up. Call Gerald Oldham and Warren Hobbs to come fix it.

Judy: I could not get Gerald and Warren, but Eddie Lee and Shelton Horne, the electronics engineers, are willing to help us out. While we are waiting let's ride in my new car which I bought from Marilyn Faircloth and Kenneth Stone at the Erwinly Motor Club. I know we will not have any car trouble because John Capps and Bruce Johnson keep it in tip-top shape.

Class Prophecy

Theresa: Let us ride out to the Erwinly Hills Hospital and see our old classmates there. Susan Parker and Jimmy Wade are heads of the hospital--we always knew they would reach the top. Carolyn Murray, Judy Jones, Diane Sease, and Sue Jones are head nurses there. The hospital has a lot of our classmates working there. Bettie Parrish, Frankie Avery, Gail Beasley, Carol Sessoms, and Barbara Tart are secretaries in the hospital, you know they always did stick together. David Raynor, with his assistant Sue Hall, is the legal advisor for the hospital as well as other business firms. Those two have always been a team. Head of the Therapy Department is Anne Turner, who always did have a liking for crutches.

Judy: Let's stop by the Erwinly Fashion Shoppe, owned by Betty Fish, Betty Tripp, and Louise Core. They always end up together even though they have their ups and downs. Their top designers are Jo Ann Hawley, Judy Melvin, and Judy Pope. Their most popular model, of course, is Sylvia Beasley.

Theresa: Judy, I will go over to the Cutie Squaw Shop while you make an appointment at Dr. Jimmy Simpson's dental office. Say hello to Sheila Johnston, his receptionist, and Brenda Ivey, his hygenist, while you are there. I will be over visiting Willie Strickland, Shirley Stone, and Ann Walters who are operators at the Cutie Squaw Beauty Shop. They have proved that marriage and a career can both succeed. The shop always has the latest books by Steve Gulledge, Barbara West, Carolyn Johnson, and Susie Morgan. Those members really rate the top in L. D. Colville's newspaper's book review section, THE ERWINLY HI-LITE'S.

Judy: After I finish, let's go to Marshall Faircloth's "Big Red Steak House" for lunch. Then we can see the DOROTHY BENNETT AND TOMMY NORRIS SHOW at the Coliseum. Dorothy and Tommy have a great variety and comedy show; they were always good for a barrel of laughs. Their guests this week are Jackie Wood, our class singer, who we knew would be a star; Judy Glover, the number one female vocalist; Lois Avery, who won the Pulitzer Prize for poetry this year; and Martha West, the pianist who won fame in her performance at Burton Hall. By the time the show is over, the boys should have Telestar fixed.

Place: Judy's garage

Judy: Eddie and Shelton report that all the trouble was caused by a disturbance when Charles Barbour and Jimmy Smith hit the moon. What a pair! Well, it is time for Brenda West's evening report on the EBS network. Let's listen.

"Textile leaders Larry Jones and Lafayette Trogdon have made a million dollar settlement with Ronald Patterson's insurance company for a broken window pane caused by the practice shooting of those two great hunters, Joseph Smith and Herbert Horne.

Theresa: You might as well turn Telestar off because we have heard from everyone except Larry Johnson and Gayle Hobbs. Since it is only 3:30 p.m., I am sure they are still in bed. They were always like owls, sleeping all day and staying awake all night.

Judy: Well, Theresa, I hope you enjoyed your visit. It certainly has been fun. We have contacted all 83 of our graduating class and it looks as though all of them have accomplished their goals.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Seniors of Erwin High School, do hereby declare this as our last will and testament in manner and form as follows:

ITEM I

To our parents: We leave our deepest love and appreciation for making our school years possible.

ITEM II

To the faculty: We leave assurance that we will use the instruction that they have so patiently given to the best of our ability.

ITEM III

To our sponsors: We leave our sincere appreciation for their patience and the encouragement they have shown us during our last year at E. H. S.

ITEM IV

To the Juniors: We leave our Senior privileges, walking into chapel last, the press room, and our best wishes.

ITEM V

ANN ENNIS and LINDA SMITH leave their ability to stay friends to Jatana Wilson and Debbie Hall. "Till the end of time."

BETTY TRIPP and LOUISE CORE leave their ability to do everything together to Brenda Addison and Jean Bowling. "Two heads are better than one."

MIGUEL ARISA and JOEY GILES leave their gentlemen-like manners to Larry McLamb and Johnny Woodruff. "Ladies love gentlemen."

JUDY and SUE JONES leave their sister-like ways to Sheila and Mary Byrd. "Blood is thicker than water."

MARTHA WEST and BRENDA WEST leave their ability to create excitement to Jennifer Godwin and Juliana Denning. "You can stand still, but I'd rather move on."

JUDY HALL, SHIRLEY STONE, and SYLVIA BEASLEY leave their ability to stick to one guy to Conni Surles, Delores Simmons, and Evelyn Horton. "Many small things amount to great things."

RICKY NORRIS and KENNETH STONE leave their separate ways to Joseph Harper, Carl Smith, and Tony Tyndall. "You go your way and I'll go mine."

JOHN CAPPS leaves his dependability to Mike Williams, Leonard Thornton, Steve Stephenson, and Steve Stewart. "You can depend on me."

BRENDA IVEY leaves her position as library assistant to Julia Ivey and Joyce Stewart. "Help me, Cassius, or I sink."

GRACE EARNSHAW and SHEILA JOHNSTON leave their carefree ways to Barbara Taylor and Patsy Tyson. "The only way to get rid of temptation is to yield to it."

Last Will and Testament

JUDY GLOVER leaves her singing ability to Sylvia Turnage. "As sweet as the sound of a canary."

MARILYN FAIRCLOTH leaves her mischievous ways to Sondra Warren. "A little mischief goes a long way."

CAROLYN JOHNSON and JUDY POPE leave their pleasing smiles to Jane Wade and Margaret Oldham. "Smile and the whole world smiles with you."

GAIL WOOD and ANNE TURNER leave their pleasing dispositions to Gloria Godwin, Gracie Duquette, and Sherry Lambert. "Pleasant to think of."

BETTY FISH and LOIS AVERY leave their talented ability to Hannah Carpenter. "One shall reap what one sows."

WADE TURNER and LARRY JONES leave their friendly ways to Billy Moran and Glenn Avery. "The way to have a friend is to be a friend."

BECKY BENNETT and THERESA COLEMAN leave their easy going ways to Janice West and Brenda Stewart. "As smooth as glass."

JO ANN HAWLEY and LINDA VANN leave their undying love for that certain boy to Dot Hawley and Kay Porter. "First comes love, then comes marriage."

JUDY MELVIN and ANN WALTERS leave their sincere ways to Lois Smith and Joan Lee. "Honesty is the best policy."

BARBARA TART and WILLIE STRICKLAND leave their politeness to Edna Burnsides and Jackie Davis. "I'm the peak of courtesy."

FRANCES TEW and PATRICIA MOORE leave their many boyfriends to Carol Godwin and Brenda Thomas. "Things will happen you know."

BRUCE JOHNSON and JOSEPH SMITH leave their ability to make smart remarks to Charles Crane and Bill Avery. "Hold thy tongue."

LARRY JOHNSON and GERALD OLDHAM leave their driving ability to Earl House, Scott Stephenson, and Bill Bass. "I'm behind the wheel and I have control."

RONNIE HARRELSON, LYNN TYNDALL, and JACKIE WOOD leave their winning personality to Jimmy Stephenson and Wayne Byrd. "A merry heart makes a cheerful countenance."

TOMMY NORRIS and NICKEY LOVICK leave their ability to make one laugh to Robert Smith, Thomas Bass, James Guinn, and Al Thompson. "All the world loves a clown."

LAFAYETTE TROGDON leaves his ability to find the right girl to William Avery and Richard Byrd. "Girls are a man's best friend."

STEVE GULLEDGE and GAYLE HOBBS leave their ability to sleep in class to Raymond King, John West, Dwight West, Ray Jackson, and Robert Autry. "Blessings on him who first invented sleep."

MARSHALL FAIRCLOTH and ROY AVERY leave their quiet ways to Jerry Gautier, Joseph Parnell, James Ennis, Thomas Norris, Larry Byrd, and Sherrill Hall. "The truly civilized ones have no enemies."

LEE McLEAN and EDDIE LEE leave their height to Ricky Manning and Johnny Moore. "Inches add up, you know."

RAY BAKER, RONNIE MIRIELLO, and L. D. COLVILLE leave their way with the women to Donnie Weeks, Danny Sawyer, and Michael Ennis. "Oh, whistle and I'll come to ye, my women."

CHARLES BARBOUR and JIMMY SMITH leave their ability to go to Faison and dance to Steve Hamilton and Simon Allen. "Nothing like being used to a thing."

GAIL BEASLEY and CAROL SESSOMS leave their various ways to Sue Phillips and Kay Johnson. "Variety is the spice of life."

RONALD PATTERSON and SHELTON HORNE leave their intelligence to Robert West and A. F. Lee. "Grace is given by God, but knowledge is bought in the market."

DAVID RAYNOR leaves his ability to sit with a crowd of girls in all the classes to Kenny Godwin. "Why should the devil have all the good times?"

As for me, they say that you can't take it with you, but I'm sure going to try, so I leave nothing.

Mr. Gillikan,

I have truly enjoyed having you as my teacher and friend. You are one of the finest teachers I have ever had. Bookkeeping has really been a pleasure and I have really enjoyed it. We sure had fun telling each other fish tales, I hope we can go fishing again before school's out. I need wishing a real friend and swell teacher the Best Wishes I have. May God bless your life always.

Mr. Gillikin,
There isn't enough room left for me to try to tell you just how nice it has been to have you for my teacher and a friend. There are a lot of things I will never forget about you, although we will probably be far apart after graduation. I think you are a great teacher. Lots of people just say that but I mean it from the deep of my heart. It was a surprise to have such a young teacher last year when we came back from the Christmas holidays. In fact, you have surprised us again — marrying Pat. She is a very lucky woman and I think you are a lucky man. I wish you the best of everything in your life together. I hope that love, luck, and happiness will be your guiding footsteps all through life. I really appreciated your writing my speech for secretary of the Student Council. It was very good. I could never have gotten as many votes as I did if it hadn't been for it. You have truly made my Senior year the happiest of my school days. I have enjoyed having bookkeeping under you. You might not believe it, but bookkeeping is my favorite subject. At the beginning of this year, I wanted to be a secretary but now I want to be a bookkeeper.

Mr. Gillikin,
I was glad to see you come after Christmas last year after having so many substitutes. You brightened up our General Business class and kept it from being a bore. I was also glad when I learned that you were going to teach bookkeeping this year. I have really enjoyed being in your classes a great deal. We sometimes strayed away from the normal routine of work with your jokes. These

Mr. Gilliland,
I just don't know how old E. H. S. rules get along, next year I just don't know. Seriously, I have enjoyed learning you as a teacher and friend as well. I can't truly say that I will miss getting homework, but I can say that it has been a pleasure. The whole year, because sometimes the material was a little tough. I can say that it has been a pleasure to have been a student of yours. I just do not see how

We Gratefully Dedicate

Seldom do we stop to thank the most important people in our lives for all the help they have given us, the guidance they have shown to us, the inspiration they have been to us, and the fidelity with which they have always supported us. As we have developed into individuals, we have always looked to them for something more than time they have given, money they have spent, and energy they have wasted for us. The understanding they gave us was seldom lacking in fairness. With appreciation and love, the Seniors of 1964 dedicate this page to our PARENTS and GUARDIANS.

Mr. Gilliken,

I'll always remember your first day at E.H.S. You acted as if you were scared that you'd say the wrong thing. On some days you were very happy, then other days you acted as if everything was down. Those days you were usually in a bad mood and the students had to be on their toes. You were disturbed because the students (some of them) never paid attention, but I believe you finally learned that they just didn't care. Later, you gained confidence and turned out to be a very good teacher. In Bookkeeping this year, sometimes you were a little [illegible] but I guess you were a good teacher, studying one could catch on. Probably you are one of the nicest and best teachers I've ever known. Best wishes and prayers to you and Pat. May happiness always be yours. God bless you always and keep you in His will.
Best wishes to a real considerate and real nice teacher.

Mr. Gilkin,

It has really been a pleasure to be in your class these past two years. I wish I could have made better in Bookkeeping, but I can truly say I have really tried. I guess after June I probably will not see you again. But even if I don't I will never forget you and I hope the feeling is mutual. You have been more than a teacher to me. You have been more as a real close friend. (Who I can talk over my problems with, no matter what they may be.) I'm sure that will never have the same thoughts and opinions. You made a good teacher, you know whatever decision you make about anything will be right. I wish the best for you and Pat & I believe you will have a successful marriage. (or know rather) Jerry and I will have the same. We may be clips a down, just keep the chin up, and that wonderful smile of yours flashing. It's not been for you this year my senior year would be incomplete. May God Bless you always. He has his blessings down on a deserving person. Please don't ever stop trying, the world needs Bookkeeping but I'm not going to be a "G.B." student. Hope I see you after graduation someday when you are the big executive boss, as I am applying for a job. (Under the Balance Sheet)

Mr. Gillikin,
I can truly say I have very much enjoyed being in your classes these last two years. I know I have been really annoying sometime, but I really didn't mean to be. Also, when I picked at you in front of the class, I didn't mean to make you mad.

Mr Gilliken,

I can't begin expressing my gratitude to you for your helping me in my school work this year. If I were to write on all the pages in this book it would never be able to tell you how much I appreciate you. When I had problems, whether they were large or small, you were always there to listen with an open heart. I appreciate the times you put a smile on my face when it was down in the dumps. I can truly say that your class is the only class I have ever been in with a smile on my face every time. You are a wonderful teacher and I think a lot of you in a friendship way. You have a wonderful sense of humor + personality even when you are in a "bad mood". I guess we all have our good and bad moods don't we. I wish you and Mrs. Gilliken the best of luck in the years to come. I hope you have the happiest marriage that could be offered. May the good Lord bless and help in what ever you attempt to do.
